

KNOWING THE RULE 2007

Quiz 2.

1. When are players under the control of the referee?
2. Give three instances where the blowing of the whistle temporarily stops play.
3. If a player knocks on and is then tackled whilst trying to regather the ball, what action if any is taken by the referee?
4. If a penalty is awarded against the defending team for an infringement in the defensive teams' in-goal, where is the penalty given?
5. If a player takes the ball back from the mark for a penalty to tap the ball, where do the opposition players have to stand?
6. Can a forward detach himself from a scrum at any time?
7. Give two examples of a voluntary tackle.
8. Give three examples of an accidental breach resulting in a zero tackle count at the following tackle.
9. How does a referee indicate 'extra time'?
10. Give an example of the ball hitting the post or cross bar and the breach not being negated.

KNOWING THE RULE 2007
ANSWERS

Quiz 2

- A1. From the time they enter the playing area until they leave it.
Reference: Section 16, 7, page 42.
- A2. When a try or goal has been scored.
When the ball has gone out of play.
When restarting play, other than at a scrum.
A mutual infringement.
To enforce laws of the game.
Reference: Section 16, 8.1, page 43.
- A3. Penalty for the obstruction.
Reference: Section 15, Notes 10), page 40.
- A4. 10 metres from the goal line, in line with where the offence occurred.
Reference: Section 8, Notes 4(b), page 19.
- A5. 10 metres from the original mark or on the goal line.
Reference: Section 13, 3, page 34
- A6. Yes provided there are not already seven players acting as backs.
Reference: Section 12, Notes 3, page 29.
- A7. The player marking the tackled player at the play-the-ball dives behind the tackled player in order to drop on the ball when there is an acting half back. A player in possession dives out of his own in-goal to avoid a goal line drop out and makes no attempt to play on.
Reference: Section 11, Notes 4, page 24. Section 2, page 7.
- A8. Knock on, Forward Pass, Accidental Offside.
Reference: Section 11, 7(b), page 25.
- A9. Raises both arms vertically above the head.
Reference: Section 17. page 49.
- A10. Hitting the post or cross bar in flight, a ball rebounding off a player.
Reference: Section 8, Notes 6(b), page 20.

